

THE EMBASSY OF
THE REPUBLIC OF POLAND
IN WASHINGTON D.C.

CONSULATE OF THE REPUBLIC
OF POLAND IN SAN FRANCISCO
AND SOUTH AND EAST BAY

P R E S E N T

Conference
"Poland: The Ideal Business Partner"
Offshoring Information Technology & Business
Processing

Learn About Poland's Favorable Business Climate & Pro-American Culture.
Hear Why Dell, Google, Hewlett-Packard, Intel, IBM, Motorola, Siemens, and others have opened offices in Poland.

Time & Place
Thursday, November 8, 2007
5:30pm-9:30pm
Stauffer Auditorium at Hoover Institution
434 Galvez Mall,
Stanford, CA 94305

Who Should Attend?

- Any company losing business because of a lack of IT talent or high costs of non-core support functions.
- Any company with information technology or business process needs being unmet in-house or by an outsourcing vendor.
- Any company that wants proximity to a market of 500 million people in the European Union.

Map & directions

Keynote Speakers

Zbigniew Kubacki, Minister Counselor of Trade and Investment at Polish Embassy
Wojciech Szlagowski, Vice President of Polish Information & Foreign Investment Agency
Marek Michalik, Vice Mayor of the City of Łódź

Schedule:

5:30-7:00 Refreshments & networking
7:00-7:30 Keynote Speakers
7:30-9:00 Panel Session
9:00-9:30 Refreshments & networking

Speakers

Clay Bullwinkel, Director, US-POLISH TRADE COUNCIL
Seweryn Krajewski, Director, SIEMENS
Deborah Magid, Director, Software Engineer, IBM
Lydia Mazzie, Director, Int. Engineering Operations,

Further Information:

www.polishconsul.com
events@polishconsul.com
Szymon Ociepka 415 305 6676

GOOGLE

Steve Mezak, CEO, ACCELERANCE
George Slawek, President, MARKET STREET ASSOCIATES

Moderator

Tom Foremski, Journalist, FINANCIAL TIMES & SILICON VALLEY WATCHER

City of Łódź

SIEMENS

Google

MARKET STREET ASSOCIATES

K&L GATES

Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP

IBM

KLA Tencor

TAUBE PHILANTHROPIES